Section to be completed BEFORE THE MOBILITY

I. PROPOSED MOBILITY PROGRAMME

Language of training: English

Overall objectives of the mobility:

The program of the training week "Student-oriented teaching process - farm data collection and farm planning" is designed to serve the general objectives of the mobility activities - bringing a common master program together with the University of Weihenstephan-Triesdorf into force, training of participating university staff in their respective fields of research, and deepening the institutional links between the university staff of the involved institutions.

Added value of the mobility (in the context of the modernisation and internationalisation strategies of the institutions involved):

To reach the common goals deriving from the overall objectives, the workshop program focuses on enhancing the internationalisation and modernization of the home university of the participant. Specifically, emphasis is given to international research and teaching linkages and the development of an up-to-date curriculum in cooperation with Weihenstephan-Triesdorf University. The international teaching experience of the participating staff member is promoted by presentation and discussion on

- 1) curriculum development in 'Agrarian Management' at the home university
- 2) its current research topics.
- 3) development and conducting of internships
- 4) development of an on-farm-data base

Activities to be carried out:

Workshop Activities:

- Each participating university presents proposals for the development of a farm data base
- Production information, Classifying outputs/costs; Gross margin accounting; Farm planning and investments; Farm economic analysis; results and discussions

Various excursions:

- Visit to an agricultural educational farm with biogas-plants to exemplify internship and on-farm data collection
- seminars on data analyses and impact on farm economic success.
- meetings and discussions with provider of farm internships.

Expected outcomes and impact (e.g. on the professional development of the staff member and on both institutions):

Outcomes expected:

- Better understanding of challenges and prospects of the development of the master program
- Experience in student-oriented teaching and data collection.
- Deepening of economic knowledge and farm evaluation.
- Networking and research linkages to (other) participant universities intensified

Impact expected:

- Improvement of the knowledge and understanding of the participating universities.
- Recognizing challenges and tasks for the future collaboration.
- Strengthen the personal relationships and trust.
- Improving of the international competitiveness of the participating universities.

Higher Education
Mobility Agreement form
Marina SannikovaII. COMMITMENT OF THE THREE PARTIES

By signing⁶ this document, the staff member, the sending institution and the receiving institution confirm that they approve the proposed mobility agreement.

The sending higher education institution supports the staff mobility as part of its modernisation and internationalisation strategy and will recognise it as a component in any evaluation or assessment of the staff member.

The staff member will share his/her experience, in particular its impact on his/her professional development and on the sending higher education institution, as a source of inspiration to others.

The staff member and the beneficiary institution commit to the requirements set out in the grant agreement signed between them.

The staff member and the receiving institution will communicate to the sending institution/enterprise any problems or changes regarding the proposed mobility programme or mobility period.

After completing the mobility the staff member is required to present a certificate of attendance, signed by the receiving institution on the last day of the mobility.

The staff member shall have adequate insurance coverage. It is his/her responsibility to arrange adequate insurance cover (health insurance and liability insurance)

Health insurance, personal liability and accident insurance will be taken out for participants by the receiving institution. The cost of this insurance will be borne by participants themselves. This cost will be deducted from the grant amount before it is paid out to participants.
